

WILLIAM MORAIN.

MARCH 5, 1840.

Laid on the table.

Mr. CHITTENDEN, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of William Morain, report :

That the petitioner claims to have served in the Revolutionary war from 1791 to 1794, and now prays to be placed upon the invalid pension-roll, on account of an injury said to have been received while in said service. From the petitioner's own statement, he remained in the service two and a half years after he received the wound.

There is no testimony in possession of the committee to prove the statement made by the petitioner. The committee therefore ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the petition.

Blair & Rives, printers.

WILLIAM MORAIN.

MARCH 5, 1840.

Laid on the table.

Mr. CHRISTENSEN, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of William Morain, report:

That the petitioner claims to have served in the Revolutionary war from 1791 to 1794, and now prays to be placed upon the invalid pension-roll, on account of an injury said to have been received while in said service. From the petitioner's own statement, he remained in the service two and a half years after he received the wound. There is no testimony in possession of the committee to prove the statement made by the petitioner. The committee therefore ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the petition.

Wm. S. Hayes, printer.